

The Nj law for do not call is the best thing thats happen in a long time. I can now enjoy a pieceful night without having someone interupt our family time. Do not change this law its working fine and it doesn't need to be changed to be less stringent.